

NE conference Jon Erwin. Poster Activity

POWER: (Having a Voice, Learning, Success)

- respect / listen to students' opinions
 - ask opinions
 - classroom jobs
 - publish work
 - ask students for help
 - curriculum options for Grade (A,B,C)
 - democratic learning environment and grading system
 - involving students in planning and implementation of curriculum, school, "rules"
 - code of honor/ ethics
 - advisory class
 - character report card
 - Self- evaluation
 - mastery learning
 - weekly town meeting (student led)
 - choices of students
 - students - recruitment
 - invite students to be experts
 - when our students excel in college classes
 - mentoring, peer mediation, judicial board
 - praise, achievement, recognition

 - choices
 - jobs/ responsibilities in classroom and school
 - publish/ display student work
 - student co- teachers
 - students help set norms (mutual power)
 - students see their comments taken seriously -students mentor each other
 - student driven incentives
 - flip classroom
 - revisiting standards multiple times(no set time limit)
 - breaks
 - meetings
 - authentic, meaningful activities
 - ask opinion
 - community service - out of school
 - allowing students to use talents
 - building community
 - student leadership- judicial
 - be able to teach the class
 -
- Knowing your strengths and weaknesses
- teaching how to be role model
 - student to student learning
 - sharing cultures